This is the edition with the quire-signatures at the top of the page.
- LICHTENBERGER. Pronosticatio zu theutsch [? Ulm, ? J. Zainer, c. 1488]
see MAINZ, Meydenbach (No. 9a, p. 2 present catal.)

- 438 BONAVENTURA (S.) Meditationes vitae Christi.
[s.n., Ulm, Joh. Zainer, c. 1487]
Sm. 4to., wdct., (some wormholes), bds., (Pirkheimer copy). £9 10s.
H.-Cop. *3551. Pr. 2549. Poll. p. 530. Schr. 3525. Not in Pell. (Cf. H. 3552, Pr. 2550 and Schr. 3526, very similar, from the same press, ? if not the same).
- 439 [DIONYSIUS Carthus.] Spiegel der armen sündigen Seele.
Ulm, Conr. Dinckmut, 1484
Sm. 4to., orn. painted inits., calf ex., g.e., by Bedford. £40.
First ed. of the German transl. of No. 201. Probably the only copy known to contain sig. b 1-8. That in the B.M. (Poll. p. 534, Pr. 2563) which is the only example we can trace lacks that quire. (The page on fol. 8 ro. is here leaved just the same). Hain 14949 and Panzer 197 both quote from an earlier source and give 63 leaves instead of 72 (including last blank, as in the present copy), the quire b evidently missing in their copy.
- 440 LIRER (Thoman). Schwäbische Chronik.
(Ulm, Conr. Dinckmut, 1486)
Sm. fol., large wdcts. attr. to Wechtlin (probably his earliest work), parchment: (wants 10 leaves). £40.
Mainly agrees with the 2nd ed. (first with date), though the leaves at beginning read as those of the 3rd edition printed a few months later in the same year. Possibly belongs to an intermediate issue.
H. *10117-18. Panzer 228-9. Schr. 4508-9. Muther 355 & pl. 88, 89. Pr. 2567. Poll. p. 535.

- 442 ITINERARIUM seu peregrinato B.M.V.
[s.n., Ulm., Joh. Reger, c. 1489]
Sm. 4to., large wdcts., parchment. £75.
Very rare in perfect condition as this. Apparently the 1st Latin ed. and the only one by this printer, see Murray, German Catal., 223.
H. *9322 (appar. impft.) = 9323. Pr. 2584. Poll. p. 540 (2 copies in B.M., both "made up"). Schr. 4576. Muther 364. Burger, Mon. T., 300.

Fol., large wdcts. and inits., old red mor., (Horace Walpole's copy, afterwards W. Morris). £125.
First collected ed. and only ed. with these cuts. H. *4369. Pell. 3214. Pr. 2586. Poll. p. 542. Schr. 3667. Muther 367. Woolley Photos. 82. Gesell. f. T. 87. Essenwein pl. 143. Jennings, Initials, p. 128.

Fol., calf ex., g.e., by Bedford. £25.
H. *6718. Pr. 2653. Poll. p. 564. The only press at this town: very few books printed there.

ROSTOCK 1476.

445 CURSUS de domina secundum ecclesiam Hamburgensem.
Rostock, Lud. Dietz, 1522
Sm. 8vo., fine metal cuts, signed p b, early bind. of boards covered with leaf from MS. on vellum. £55.

A rare book in brilliant condition: any liturgical book for the use of Hamburg is very unusual. Only one specimen of this press is registered by Proctor (11213).
Bohatta p. 67, No. 18, but no copy cited. Not in Lacombe.

WÜRZBURG 1479.

446 BRUNO (B.) episc. Herbipol. Psalterium ex doctorum dictis collectum. [s.n., Würzburg, Georg Reyser, c. 148...]

ERFURT 1479.

449 CLAUDIANUS de Raptu Proserpine.
[s.n., Erfurt], I.K. [Hans Knapp, 1500-8?]
Sm. 4to., calf gilt. £6.

Apparently the only copy known: registered only by Copinger 1658 from the present vol. (Burger's Ind. p. 458) and attributing it to the press of Koelhoff at Cöln. Probably the earliest book from Knapp's press.

Title above a remarkable and finely engraved device, white on black, 59 × 52, with initials of printer IK on a shield supported by two lions. This device is apparently otherwise unknown.

450 EOBANUS Hesus (Helius). De amantium infoelicitate contra Venerem, &c. Erfurt, Hans Knapp for H. Eobanus, 1508 Sm. 4to., device, old calf gilt: (bound with Joh. Beussel, De incendio Rotemburgii [s.n., Leipzig, Thanner]). £4 4s.

Very rare. Possibly the 1st book from this press (but cf. No. 449). Not in Proctor.

451 VEGETIUS. De re militari.
[s.n., Erfurt, Hans Knapp, c. 1511]
Fol., old boards. £18.

Separate issue (without text) of the 195 folio cuts from the rare German edition of Erfurt 1511 (Proctor 11234. Panzer 705, p. 121, 335). No. 1 signed P.V.M., No. 10 M.S., and Nos. 49 & 90 HK (Knapp), the latter dated 1511. There are quire signatures in roman type below the blocks, showing this to be an issue distinct from that with letterpress.

452 In Eduardum LEEUM quorundam e Sodalitate Literaria Erphurdien. Erasmi nominis studiosorum epigrammata.
Erfurt, Hans Knapp, 1520

Sm. 4to., border, half calf. £3.

Not in Proctor. See Dodgson II. p. 409 (3).

453 FEMEN (Conr.) Eyn gut new rechen buchleyn ist erdacht und ist nach der schlechtē zall gemacht Als hye geschriben steth Als man hundert nach eynander zelt. Erfurt, Matthes Maler, 1523 Sm. 8vo., wdcts., fine copy, red mor. ex., inside borders, g.e. £12.

A rare Arithmetic book, in rhyme throughout. Not in Panzer, Weller, or Smith, Rara Arithmetica.

MEMMINGEN 1482 [? 1480].

454 ROLEWINCK. Fasciculus temporum.
Memmingen, [Albr. Kunne], 1482

Fol., wdcts., half vellum. £10.

H. *6931. Pr. 2772. Poll. 602. Schr. 5114. Probably the first book printed at Memmingen: certainly the first there with woodcuts.

 Fol., wdcts., brown mor. ex., g.e., fine copy with ample margins. £11.
 The first of this printer's editions. Pell. 643 (Bib. Nat. only). Schr. 3290a (with the fullpoint at end of title). Cf. H. *1039, Pr. 2858 and Poll. p. 624.
- 461 EPISTOLA de miseria Curatorum seu plebanorum. [s.n., Leipzig, C. Kachelofen, c. 1490]
 Sm. 4to., wdct. dated 1489 and signed h, half calf. £9.
 Apparently an unregistered edition, differing from those described by Hain, Cop., Pr., Poll., Pell., Schr. and Murray, German Catal., No. 470.
- 462 ARS MORIENDI ex varijs scripturarū sentēcijs collecta cū figuris. [s.n., Leipzig, C. Kachelofen, c. 1498]
 Sm. 4to., wdcts., parchment boards, sound copy: (wants 1 leaf, B2). £40.
 Extremely rare edition, one of the four Latin eds. by the same printer. It has never been fully described. First registered by Weigel & Zestermann, No. 242 (II. 45-49), that copy then consisting only of 8 leaves (out of 14), the title-page being then unknown. Possibly the same ed. as the Breslau copy registered by Schreiber 3375, which also lacks the title. The present example contains the title-leaf and cut (on verso). Pollard p. 633, purchased in 1903, is apparently the same edition. Unmentioned by other bibliographers.
- 463 WIREKER (Nigel). Brunellus in speculo stultorum. [s.n., Leipzig, C. Kachelofen, c. 1487-9]
 Sm. 4to., wdcts., orig. stamped bind. (one side neatly restored), some uncut edges. £7 7s.
 Probably the first edition printed in Germany and the first with illustrations.

- 465 ANDREÆ (J.) Lectura super arboribus consanguinitatis et affinitatis . . . (Leipzig), [M. Landsberg], (1498)
Fol., wdcts., brown levant mor. ex., g.e. £10 10s.

Sm. 4to., wdct., green mor. ex., g.e., by F. Bedford. £15.
Pr. 11327. Brunet II. 970. Probably the first edition, perhaps never translated (Weller 772 is evidently not the same work). According to Brunet the 2nd edition appeared in 1513 (Leipz. Thanner). An ed. of "1507" indexed by Proctor (p. 244) as No. 11335 evidently refers to a different work.

625 [INDULGENCE]. . . Quod propter contributionem Eleemosynarium factam secundum formam Apostolici indulti infra scripti in subsidium Fabrice Basilice Apostolorum Principis in Romana Urbe concessum est . . .

(? Roma, s. typ., 10 kal. Aug. 1512)

Two broadsides, c. 240 × 160, framed and glazed, but easily removable. £14 10s.

Two impressions of the form of indulgence granted by Julius II to those contributing to the building expenses of S. Peter's. Both are in the same type (31 lines) but differently set and with different initials. A large V in one case is really A inverted and in the other V there is a small R on a shield introduced. They were probably printed both together on one sheet and afterwards cut apart, as seems to have been the practice. Possibly unique.

1st or 2nd ed. H. 2541 (1) not seen. Pell. 1902 has only Pt. II. (Bibl. Nat. & Maz.) Not in Proctor. The present may therefore be the only copy of this vol. available. The arms and rebus of John Morton (1420-1500) are painted on first page: he was abp. of Canterbury and Cardinal: probably owned the book when practising as a canon lawyer. Probably Pirkheimer's copy subsequently.

 uncertain if the design is the same. A copy of the Q. Curtius (as No. 631) in the

Erh. Ratdolt, 1476

Large 4to. (fol.), ornam. wdct. title, diagrams, &c., orig. limp vellum, in case: waterstains and some edges frayed, no pointers, &c., but very large (295 × 220), uncut. £60.

H. 13789 (not seen). Pr. 4366. Redgrave's Ratdolt No. 2, and pp. 3, 6-9. Essling 248 and repr. p. 241. Ongania 29.

First ed. This ed. in Italian and that in Latin of the same year were the first books printed by Ratdolt. The ornamental title-page (in both eds.) is the first in a printed book (repr. Redgrave pl. 2, p. 6), and is in fact the first specimen of woodcut ornament in a Venetian impression (Lippmann p. 66). First example of "the extensive use in Italy of woodcut initials" (Redgrave pl. 3) which were not used again. There is of course the possibility that these borders (Nos. 680-8) were by the hand of B. Maler or Pictor as suggested by the name, a supposition that is strengthened by the fact of their discontinuance after the partnership with Ratdolt was dissolved (before Nov. 1478): for no borders were used subsequently except border No. 3, which was used for the Euclid once after this date, and a new border of a quite different style used three times.

This copy originally belonged to Ferdinand Columbus (1488-1539), the son of the great Navigator: on the last page being his usual note of purchase (partly erased) "Este libro costo 20 (?) quatrines en ferrara a 7 [date erased] y el ducado de oro vale 426 quatrines."

746 VORAGINE (Jac. de). Legenda sanctorum. Venice, Oct. Scotus, 1483 4to., mor. ex., fully blind tooled, g.e. (trifling wormhole). £5 5s.

Not in H. Cop. III. 6433, "248 leaves" but evidently there should be only 246, as per Register at end. Reichling III. p. 214 mentions the lack of a 1 & 2 in his copy, but they are evidently blanks only, as the Register does not mention them and we have seen a copy in orig. bind. with these 2 blanks in situ. In the present copy the last 2 leaves (ff. 247 & 8) are occupied by the Table and Register, evidently lacking in Reichling's. Proctor 4579, who remarks that probably all the early books from this press were printed by L. WILD or A. de PALTASICHIS (Nos. 714, 719-22).

752 [OFFICIUM Romanum in laudem B.V.M. ordinatum . . .
 Venice, Hier. Scotus, c. 1544]
 8vo., numerous fine cuts, olive mor. ex., g.e. (wants several ll.) £22.
 An apparently unregistered edition, closely resembling that fully described by Essling 503 (with 13 repros.) but evidently differing in several respects in the set-up.
 The cuts, borders, &c. are the same in both, but in the present there is no cut on fol. 8 vo. nor on fol. 63 vo. (see Essl. Tableau IV) but only type, &c., the last mentd.
 cut appearing here on fol. 62 vo. instead of 63 vo. One cut is signed IO. PETRO FONTANA, others with initials only I. P. F., and another DECIVS FA. "Ce volume est a classer parmi les plus précieux, non seulement à cause de son insigne rareté, mais encore parce qu'il apporte deux noms nouveaux à la liste, relativement très brève, des artistes qu'on peut désigner d'une manière précise parmi les illustrateurs des livres imprimés à Venise." On the best authority it is supposed that one name is that of AGOSTO DECIO, cited by the Milanese painter Giov. Paolo Lomazzi in one of his poems as among the most remarkable miniaturists of the 16th cent.: FONTANA would probably be the cutter of these blocks.

* * The only copy of this ed. (or Essling 503) that is on record as occurring for sale within the last 30 years at least brought £55 by public auction; described as having prelim. ll. stained, and cut close.

 perhaps more accurate.

 in last 2 leaves, but large copy, with some edges uncut and 2 leaves unopened). £15.

Very rare. The only edition and the only book from this press. This press was unknown to Proctor when his Index was first published, but a note of its existence was made in his 2nd Suppt. (1900) p. 16 (p. 265) from this copy. As noted by the late Mr. George Dunn to whom this copy then belonged, "Perhaps the last book handled by poor R.P. late in his last afternoon at the B.M." The text type is said also to be indistinguishable from Venice press LXXV type 7 [G. Arrivabenus].
 Since that time only two other copies of this hitherto unknown book have been registered, one by Reichling I. No. 110 (in a bookseller's hands) and another by Pellechet 3333 (Arsenal wanting fol. 1). Unknown to other bibliographers and the press not mentioned in Burger's Index.

 blank). £4 10s.

 alone was printed at Venice in 1490). H. *7963. Pell. 5357. Pr. 5465. Kristeller 252 (device). The types and device of this press (placed by Proctor as press 123) are the same as used by Paganinus de Paganinis (press 95). This is remarked by Proctor, but he does not point out that the books with the name of Hieronymus de
 P. fall into two sections which fill gaps in the chronology of P. de P.'s press, viz.,
 5 books, 7 Sept. 1492 to 8 Nov. 1493 and one 7 Sept. 1497. This is the reason why we have placed the present item here and not after the press of J. Tacuinus.

Tacuino in 1524 (see Caracciolus, post), and at Avignon 1522 by J. de Channey (post). The Crucifixion cut is the same as in No. 960.

£4 10s.

Very rare volume of poems in Italian. ? First ed. Not in Hain, Cop., Reichling, Proctor, Brunet or Suppt. The type is probably No. 6 or 6* of this press. The poem beginning on D 7 has the distinction of having been the first Satire ever printed in the Italian language (i.e., in 1495 at Bologna) see Brunet V. 1259 and Reichl. 783. Apparently the volume begins with quire B (and is said to agree in this respect with a copy in the B.M.) no quire A having been provided.

Rare press. H. *12737. Pr. 5374. The only specimen of this press in the B.M. or Bodl. One other book by this printer is known, the only available copy of which seems to be that in "Mus. Nat. Hung." (Hain-Cop. (III.) 12205).

965 LACTANTIUS. Opera. Venice, Vincentius Benalius, 1493 Fol., old vellum gilt, (some wormholes at end, but otherwise a fine large copy). £4.

Rare press. H. *9816. Cop. I. p. 289 (B.M. and Copinger library) collat. wrong: really 140 ff. incl. blank each end, not 138. Pr. 5376. Only two other books from this press are known, one of which is not in the B.M. or Bodleian.

H. *3124. Cop. I. p. 99. Pell. 2340 (Bibl. Nat. and Mazarine only). Proct. 5406. Essling 138. Ongania II. 30-1. Kristeller 191 (device). Caxton Exhib. 703. Pettigrew I. p. 354. Bible Soc. 6089 (impft.) The full-page Creation, Solomon and the 71 smaller cuts are from the Malermi Bible of 1490: several have the signature "b" A copy recently priced £30.

The mnemonic metrical "Tabula" appeared first in the same printer's 1494 ed.: attrib. to Alex. Villadei.

969 SACROBOSCO (Joh. de). Sphaera mundi cum tribus commentis nuper editis, viz., Cicchi Esculani [Ceccho d'Ascoli] Franc. Capuani, Jac. Fabri, [& PURBACHIUS].

Venice, Simon Bevilaqua, 1499 Fol., numerous diagrams and cuts, ornam. inits., &c., wrappers, (ink-stain on title, but large sound copy with some uncut edges). £4 10s.

Apparently differs from the variants described by H. *14125 and Cop. I. p. 419. ? Pr. 5414 (one copy in B.M. very impft.) Essling 263. Kristeller 193 (device).

Contains Joh. de Sacrobosco with the three commentaries as above, and Geo. Purbachius with the commentary of Capuanus. The latter work has its own title-page at the end of the volume and was probably an after-thought on the part of the printer as the whole tract follows the colophon to the first three works and is not mentioned on the first title-page. The cuts are apparently the blocks from the ed. by G. de Tridino 1491.

It was this commentary by Cecco d'Ascoli [Francesco de Stabili] that caused him to be charged before the Inquisition with heresy, only escaping punishment by recantation. It does not appear in the 1508 ed. (No. 860) probably for this reason, but is found in the 1518 ed. (No. 747) to which are added at least 7 other works not found in these eds. of 1499 & 1508.

It is in its first state, having a double border-line, 55 × 48, which, in the Dante of Aug. 1502, was cut away, leaving various dots where the lines were originally. Kristeller 174 gives it only in its 3rd state (without the dots).

1033 GREGORIUS Nazianzenus. Carmina gr. et lat. Venice, Aldus, June 1504
4to., mor., by R. Payne, uniform with No. 1032.

? First ed. Very rare: the former owner gave £20 for this copy. Renouard I. p. 76-7 says that the copies he had seen were more or less "gâtés ou défectueux." Has the 4 prel. ll. which are not mentioned in Register. Brunet IV. 638.

1036 MANUTIUS (Aldus). De literis graecis ac diphthongis . . Abbreviationes . . Oratio Dominica . . Symbolum Apostolorum. Evan-gelium D. Ioannis . . Carmina aurea Pythagorae, Phocilidis . . moralia . . gr. et lat. (Venice, Aldus, Feb.-June 1501?)

4to., unbound, large copy. £1 18s.

Apparently the 2nd ed. of the Appendix (sigs. m & n in 8) to the Rudimenta grammatices of Aldus; first printed with Lascaris 1494-5; also in the 1512 ed. of the same (No. 1059) which is very similar in character. For the Tübingen ed. 1512, see No. 522 (wants 2 ff.) Renouard I. p. 74-5. Brunet III. 1381.

1037 PETRARCHA. Le cose volgari di Messer Francesco Petrarca. (Sonetti, Canzoni & Triomphi). Venice, Aldus, July 1501 8vo., red mor. ex., g.e., by Chambolle-Duru, (very fine copy). £15.

First Aldine ed. and first Italian book printed with the italic type of Aldus. Edited by Pietro Bembo from the autograph MS. of Petrarch. Renouard I. p. 67-70. Brunet IV. 543.

Contains the 2 blanks z4 & A8: also the 4 rare leaves headed "Aldo a gli Lettori" and errata (sig. B) at end. As this quire consists of an answer to the critics of this ed. and must have been printed some time after the issue of the book, it follows that most copies are without these leaves. The 3 sonnets (on h7) often erased or obliterated are here perfect.

1038 JUVENALIS. PERSIUS.

Venice, Aldus & Andreas [Torresanus], Aug. "1501" 8vo., orig. Italian black morocco, gilt lines, &c., and flaming vase in centres in gold, back reprinted. (leaves stained and some mended). £7 7s.

Second Aldine ed., having the same date as the first. The above was no doubt really issued some years after the first ed., as the folios are numbered, the anchor device is the block [No. 2] first appearing in 1512 (see No. 1061), and as the name of the father-in-law of Aldus is mentioned in the colophon, for his name does not appear in the Aldine books before Nov. 1508. He had, however, a press of his own much earlier (see Nos. 769-74, &c.).

Renouard I. p. 70. Brunet III. 629. Name of early owner: Joannes Bapta. Moronus (? Moroni the painter, d. 1578). The flaming vase is given by Guigard I. 149 as a device used by Diane de Poitiers.

 8vo., modern vellum gilt, but orig. gilt and gauffred edges, (stained at beginning and end, trifling wormhole in first few ll., but a sound and tall copy). £14.
 First Aldine ed. and first Dante in 8vo. Renouard I. p. 81-2. Brunet II. 500-1 "on trouve difficilement des exemplaires complets et bien conservés." The initials are illuminated and a coat-of-arms painted on first page (bendy of 7 or & az.) with initials K.C. Has the anchor device [No. 1A] on verso of last leaf, in some copies this page being blank. It is usually stated, evidently on the authority of Renouard, that this is the first book in which the Aldine anchor appears. This is true with regard to its 2nd state, but as noted to No. 1032 above, its earliest appearance in first or complete state is in the Sedulius, finished by June 1502, there appearing with its border-lines. The Dante however is the first 8vo. with the device, the Sedulius being a 4to. These facts seem to have been overlooked by bibliographers. A copy recently priced 600 fr. and another with first leaf in facs. £18.
- 1045 DANTE. Le terze rime. Another copy.

1051 BESSARION (Nic. card.) In calumniatorem Platonis libri IV: correctio librorum Platonis de legibus: de natura et arte, &c.

Venice, Aldus, July 1503

Fol., calf, with orig. stamped sides inlaid, having fine borders adapted from those in early French Horae, one of scrolls containing the arms of Gourmont the printer (probably one of his bindings), rows of bees or flies down centres, (in lined case); wormhole in blank margins, large copy. £24.

Second ed. but first Aldine. Renouard I. p. 95-6, "fort rare." Brunet I. 827. A similar binding (but without arms) on a book of 1512, in poor condition, "bound for Louis XII of France," sold for £50 in the Dunn Sale. Large anchor on title, Kristeller 178.

1054 ÆSOPUS. Vita et fabellae cum interpr. latina . . GABRIÆ fabellae . . Phurnutus, Palæphatus, Heraclides, Orus Apollo, &c., gr. et lat. Venice, Aldus, Oct. 1505

Second Aldine ed., almost as rare as the first of 1501. Some corrections have been made and the "De metrorum generibus" added. Sunderland copy priced in a catalogue £36. Renouard I. p. 132-3. Brunet III. 312.

Dedicated to Jaffredus Carolus, vice-chancellor to the Senate of Milan, in which Aldus acknowledges the assistance given him when imprisoned during the war of 1506. This book and the Sallust of the same year were the last produced by Aldus before the interval of 1510-11.

1057 HORATIUS. Poemata. Another copy.

Venice, Aldus, Mar. 1509

8vo., old red mor., gilt pyramids on sides, g.e., gilt flowered end papers: some early MS. notes. £17.

4to., small device No. 1 B, old red mor., gilt ornam. borders, Wodhull arms, g.e., large sound copy, including blanks f10, p4 and the three printed leaves following colophon. £5 5s.

Third Aldine ed. according to Renouard I. 135-6. Brunet III. 857-8. To this ed. is added for the first time the work on Greek dialects (sigs. x-&), "De idiomatibus linguarum tres tractatus Ioannis grammatici." The Appendix "De literis graecis" has signatures m n 8 (like No. 1036 but is not the same ed.) plus 4 leaves unsigned for the Hebrew portion.

This book was the first production of Aldus after the enforced interval of 1510-11.

1060 LASCARIS (Const.) De octo partibus orationis, &c.: CEBES: MANUTIUS, &c. Another copy.

[s.n., Venice, Aldus, 1512 ?]

4to., orig. Venetian leather, blind tooled with borders and centre ornaments (almost exactly like those on No. 1056): piece torn off title-leaf, but large copy. £5 5s.

Apparently the same as the 3rd ed. (No. 1059) but without the Greek interleaving, which this copy moreover never contained as is proved by the intact original binding. The Appendix is here, but the signatures are aa bb 8 plus 4 unsigned leaves for the Hebrew, thus differing from those in No. 1059 but possibly agreeing with those in the early undated ed. and the 1508 ed. of Aldus's Grammar. Apparently the earlier impressions of this piece are often found bound in later eds. of Lascaris, and on this point the Register at the end of the volume [in the 1512 ed. at least] gives no indication (as to signatures, &c.) no quires being mentioned between n and x. It is evident, as remarked above, that nothing has been added or subtracted from the volume. The misprinted signature Ciiii (for h4) has been corrected by the same pen as in No. 1059 showing it to have probably been done in the printing office.

1061 CHRYSOLORAS (Manuel). Erotemata, &c., graece.
Venice, Aldus, 1512
8vo., device, orig. Venetian bind., wormed, blind (? silver) arabesque borders, &c., ties, last leaf damaged, but large copy). £3 13s. 6d.

First Aldine ed. Renouard I. p. 137, "beaucoup plus rare" than the 2 subsequent eds. Brunet I. 1893. Not in Toovey's collection 1880, nor Sunderland & Beckford sales.

Apparently the first book with the new block of the small device [No. 2], very similar but more coarse in detail and slightly larger than the first, which however occurs again occasionally in other books. The difference seems not to have been noted hitherto by bibliographers, but it no doubt will be useful in giving an approximate date to Aldines without colophon: cf. Juvenal, No. 1038.

1062 PINDARUS. Olympia, Pythia, Nemea, Isthmia: CALLIMACHUS, Hymni: DIONYSIUS Afer, de situ orbis: LYCOPHRON, obscurum poema: graece.

Second Aldine ed., but first editions of some of the pieces. Renouard I. p. 235-6. Brunet II. 689-90. The binding is somewhat similar to that on No. 1051, supposed to have the same ornaments as those books bound for Louis XII of France. This volume however has still more interest, for on the last page is written the name of the original owner: "Jo. Pennands." This person, of whose nationality we are hitherto uncertain, was a close friend of Henry Parker, 8th baron Morley (1476-1556), gentleman-usher to Henry VIII. This is demonstrated by No. 6739 in our General Catalogue, a copy of the 1493 Dante in a John Reynes binding, which has an inscription in the hand of Pennandus, presenting that volume to Lord Morley in the year 1520. Another signature in the present book (probably next in point of date) is "Thomas Darbiscens" ("Darbyshyre" under lining of end cover), no doubt the prebendary of S. Paul's cathedral 1543, chancellor of the diocese of London, Jesuit at Rome 1563, who d. 1604 (see D.N.B.) The next names in probable order of date are Jo. Bennett, Nicholas Cartwright, J.D., and Cha. Mason Trin. Coll. Cant. Soc. 1730.

Renouard I. p. 348-9, like No. 1134, considers this book, though only with the name of Torresano, to have been printed at the Aldine press (cf. No. 1134): he also speaks highly of its rarity. The device on title is somewhat similar to block No. 7, but the anchor widens out below the ring.

 duc de la Force (1675-1726) and monogram on back (Guigard II. 121):
 large copy, 310 × 213. £3 10s.
 First ed. This issue is the same as Nos. 1136-7 in every respect except the title-page which is a special one, re-set, with a large device of Hermes & Athene and two small coats of arms in lower corners, probably the mark of Gualteruzzi: on verso being the privilege granted to him. The Aldine anchor is on last page.

 III. 810-11. Both mention 62 printed leaves, but this copy ends on fol. 47 with markable specimen, probably by Lemonnier. £18 18s.

 Renouard I. p. 386-7. The small anchor device is similar to that used for F.
 Torresanus (No. 1135) but again is a different block. This same block was also used by or for Comin de Trino (see post). On last page of each vol. is written "Legi anno 1596 O. Heurnius Io. fil." This is evidently the eminent Dutch physician and author Otho van Heurn (1577-c. 1648), son of Jan v. H. (1543-1601) also copy is described as the "largest known" and is priced £15 (measures 162 × 98).

 Roscoe's copy sold for £9 15s. Renouard mentions a last leaf with anchor only,

The type measures 81 mm. to 20 lines. The arms of Louis Napoleon are said to have been obliterated from title. Renouard II. p. 297. Brunet III. 1198 (2).

This is the first dated book from this press. Proctor 5577, s.n., "not before 1495," may be later than that date: this is very probable, as no other books by this printer are recorded before the Sasso.

Pederzani, signed L (Z.B.P. with elephant and howdah, Kristeller 257 [that reprod. being larger than the original, which is 122 × 95]: cf. Ongania II. 105 (74), and another in Stirling Maxwell's Heraldry, II. 12). This device is also found in the present book. The type appears to be that in Nos. 1167-9, but perhaps on a larger body.

broadside Calendar printed by Nicolo de Balager ditto Castilia in 1488 at Venice (reprod. by Essling I. p. 289 reduced). This printer is unmentioned by other bibliographers: his earliest date is 1486.

Sm. 4to., unbound, fine large clean copy. £4 15s.

Hain-Cop. 14542 (not seen, no descript.) Not in Proctor. Reichling III. p. 179-80 (copy at Rome, Bibl. V.E.) Attributed by the latter to the press of Jo. Rubeus, c. 1488, but the type, we find, is not precisely the same as used by that printer. Said to have a title-page of 3 lines, which is not in the above. For another ed. see No. 913.

1218 VORAGINE (Jac. de). Legendario | di Sancti nova- |
mente ben stam- | pado uulgare || [in gothic letter].

Venice, for brothers Nic. & Dom. dal Jesus [de Sandro], 1518
Fol., numerous wdcts., calf, fully blind tooled, gilt edges in rough, (a few borders shaved and a few stains, but sound, clean and perfect copy). £75.

Extremely rare. Essling 689. Ongania 84-6 (reduced). Not in Brunet or Suppt., or Perrins Catal. Second ed. by these printers (or publishers) with the same cuts as the 1st of 1505, but with additions.

The first difference one notices between the titles of the two editions is that one (presumably 1505) is entirely in roman letters and the other is in gothic (1518), though—apart from different arrangement—the enclosing woodcut is the same in both. It is to be remarked that the copy at St. Mark's, Venice, described by Essling No. 689, has the roman title "Legenda | rio . ." while the 2nd copy cited (as we have ascertained from another source) as well as the present one, has the gothic lettering (see above). Reprods. of the titles are given as follows: roman, Ongania II. 83 St. Mark's copy, called the 1518 ed.; and gothic, Essling II. p. 136 (reduced) there called the 1505 ed. (No. 683). Mr. Perrins's copy of the 1505 ed. has the roman title, but attention is not called in that Catal. to the discrepancy of Essling. To sum up: there seems to be no doubt that the Perrins copy (1505) is genuine throughout as are also the present one (1518) and the 2nd copy of it cited by Essling—if so, the titles given by Essling are wrong and must be interchanged. It seems also that the S. Mark's copy has, besides the title, other leaves that are taken from the earlier ed. Further, the pages reproduced by Essling II. p. 137-9 (reduced), purporting to be from the 1505 ed. correspond exactly as regards type and cuts with those in the ed. of 1518. Needless to say that the collation and colophons of each edition differ from each other, though in other respects they have a close resemblance; even many of the cuts are found on pages which have the same number in both.

It is of interest to note that in the 1505 ed. the publishers' names are given as "Nic. & Dom. de Sandro," while in the 1518 ed. this surname is omitted, in the place of it being "dal Iesus." This fact, curiously, has escaped Kristeller (devices 234-5) who was at a loss to explain the initial S found in the devices used by this press (N.D.F.S. = Nic. & Dom. fratelli [Sandro]). In the Perrins catalogue, too, the identity of the two names has not been noted, the Voragine 1505 being indexed (among printers) under "Sandro," and No. 207, Corvo 1513 under "Jesus."

One of the most handsome and profusely illustrated books of the period and very unusual in style. There are many full-page borders, which, when repeated, are varied in the design by the insertion of small blocks in circles changed for the different impressions. Above 60 cuts in borders, each occupying two-thirds of a page, and numerous smaller ones, besides ornamental initials. Several of the cuts are new ones not used in the former edition, one being signed Ϟ or G (? ? Giov. Andrea Vavassore).

On verso of title is the large device ϣhs 155 × 155, in red, not given by Kristeller, though resembling his No. 236: two different replicas in small occur in other parts (not in Krist.) The N.D.F.S. device is at end (Krist. 235) and at least two smaller versions elsewhere (not in Krist.) The dolphin border at end, 271 × 175 (inside 180 × 106) may give a clue to the actual printer if identified: it resembles those used by Zoppino, Ruscone, F. di Leno, Vitali, Tacuino, but differs from all in detail: cf. Ongania II. 95.

It might be mentioned that a copy wanting 2 leaves and with one defective was recently priced £63, and that a copy of the 1505 ed. said to be badly coloured, sold for £120. Another copy of the same ed. also coloured was recently priced 10000 fr. (£400). The period of this press was probably 1501-21.

1219 PLUTARCHUS. Vitae virorum illustrium.

Venice, Doninus Pincius, 1502

2 vols. in 1, fol., wdct. and inits., orig. vellum. £5 10s.

Essling 596 (Brit. Mus. only). With the fine cut of Theseus and the Centaur from the 1491 and 1496 eds. (see No. 866): it now has an ornam. border close up to it.

1220 PLUTARCHUS. Vitae. Another copy.

Venice, Doninus Pincius, 1502

1221 VALERIUS Maximus. Factorum et dictorum memorabilium libri X cum commento Oliverii Arzignanensis.

Venice, Albertinus de Lisona, 1503

Fol., illum. init., orig. vellum, pen lettered, large sound copy. 50s.

This printer was possibly related to Bern. de Vianis (Nos. 1166-71). The few books we have had at various times from the same press were important and all dated 1503.

1222 SABELLICUS (M. A. Coccius). Exemplorum de insigni ortu libri X, ed. J. B. Egnatio. Venice, for Jo. Barth. Astensis, 1507

4to., ornam. initials, old half bind., trifling wormholes at beginning, large copy. £1 10s.

Very probably printed by Greg. de Gregoriis (see Nos. 729-45): the fine initial V with dolphins was certainly used by him (see Jennings, Ornam. Initials, p. 183). Roman type, 81 mm. to 20 lines.

1223 GRAPALDUS (F. M.) De partibus aedium &c. cum vita authoris. Venice, Alex. de Bindonis [for Hier. Blondus], 1517

4to., numerous fine ornam. inits., orig. vellum, small corner off fol. 29 (a letter or two lost), large copy with some uncut edges, and last blank. £2 10s.

Probably the 3rd ed.: first printed at Parma 1506. An interesting description of the various parts of the ancient house, garden, library, &c. The remarkable criblée initials resemble those reprod. by Ongania II. 82 but are not identical. On title is the device of the publisher Girol. Biondo (Blondus), viz., a phoenix in red and black (printed by a method of masking the block), the same cut as in No. 839. Kristeller 201 does not mention Biondo later than 1505.

1224 CRESCENZI (Pietro de'). De agricultura vulgare.

Venice, [A. Bindoni], 9 July, 1519

Sm. 4to., wdcts., old vellum: margins added to 4 leaves, but otherwise quite sound, fine large copy, some uncut leaves. £5 5s.

1228 [SAVONAROLA]. Il novo cortegiano, de vita cauta et morale. [s.n., B. & A. Bindoni, or Fr. Bindoni & M. Pasini, c. 1523-4] 4to., border and ornam. inits., orig. vellum: (wants Q₁ besides the blanks Q₅ & 6), large and sound. £2 5s.

Rare: attrib. to Savonarola by Melzi. So far as we are aware no assignment of this book has been made to any particular press. The type (large roman) however seems to be the same as in No. 1229, here with gallows paragraph mark, there with round: an initial E is the same as in No. 1227: an H is a copy of those in other books from the press. There is a large historiated P on A2. The title-border closely resembles that of Zoppino 1525 (No. 1267) but is not identical (cf. Sessa's No. 927) and is a copy of the fol. dolphin border referred to in No. 1218.

1229 SAVONAROLA. Triumpho della croce di Christo volgare. Venice, Fr. Bindoni & Mapheo Pasini, 1524 Sm. 8vo., wdct. and ornamental inits., old vellum, (slight stains, but sound). £1 16s.

[Venice, Fr. Bindoni & M. Pasini] (1526)

Sm. 4to., diagrams and fine phrenological heads, old boards. 25s.

The author's colophon is dated from Piacenza, but the type is the same as the gothic used in No. 1229 and the initial S was formerly in No. 1223 (x 1 vo.)

1232 LUCIANUS. Dialogi; alcune belle epistole; il libro delle vere narrationi, &c.

Venice, Fr. Bindoni & M. Pasini, 1527

8vo., border and fine wdcts., orig. vellum. £2 5s.

The transl. according to Brunet is by Nic. de Lanigo; apparently the 2nd ed. of it. Essling .. (?) The 28 fine cuts are beautifully designed. The title-border is a copy of one by Holbein used at Basel by V. Curio 1523.

1233 BENTIVOGLI (Hercule). Il sogno amoroso, e l' egloge.

Copy of the Holbein border as before to both titles and small device as No. 1234. The first work was sometimes printed under the name of Boccaccio: the two occur as separate books. There seems to have been another ed. in the same year, by the same printers as above, see Brunet I. 131-2.

The title-border is new, representing Solomon and ancient poets, historians, &c., copied (with changes) from one of Froben's Basel 1520. That on fol. 1 is copied from one of Tacuino's 1505, &c., cf. reprints, Ongania II. 54, and Crane, Decor. Illust., p. 73. Device of S. Peter at end.

1238 LODOVICI (Franc. dei). Triomphi di Carlo.

Venice, Bern. de Bindoni, 1536

Fol., numerous woodcuts, brown levant mor. ex., gilt borders in 15th cent. Italian style, g.e., by J. & J. Leighton, (title in facsimile), large copy with some uncut edges. £28.

The 2nd Bindoni ed. with the original cuts as before (see No. 1235). Essling 692 (extract from a bookseller's catal. only). Not "20 ff." but 220. It might be mentioned that a copy of the 1499 ed. and one of the 1503 ed., both with these cuts, sold in May 1897 for £120 and £69 respectively.

1242 HIERONYMUS (S.) Vite di Santi Padri in volgare [attr. to Domenico Cavalca]. (Venice, Aug. & Bern. Bindoni, 1536)

Fol., numerous woodcuts, orig. vellum: (wants several leaves, a few damaged, but otherwise sound). £5 15s.

Possibly the same edition as Essling 581 (from a bookseller's catalogue), though the collation and number of lines agree with the earlier eds. 1523 & 1532: it is earlier than the 1541 Bible (No. 1250) as may be seen by comparison of state of initials, &c. Most of the fine cuts are from the 1st ed. of 1491 and are signed b, i, &c.: some of the latter ones are found in the Bible, No. 1250. They are beautifully designed and clearly cut, and are charming for their naïveté in the way certain scenes are depicted.

1243 BIBLIA . . tradotti in lingua toscana per Ant. Brucioli. Venice, F. Bindoni & M. Pasini, 1538

Stout 4to., finely cut border to each title, and ornamental inits., orig. Italian (?) black mor., elaborately decorated with Grolieresque strapwork and scrolls in gold outline forming cartouches, &c., painted in various colours, dotted gold background, fine gilt and tooled edges, (rebacked): some wormholes in blank margins, but large clean copy with some uncut edges, (in case). £38.

Essling 151, "Ce livre est orné de gravures sur cuivre" but there is no evidence of of such plates in the volume, nor is it likely that any copies were issued with them. Can it be the initials that are referred to?

The fine border is a reduced copy of that in the 1532 ed. A fine full-page device of the angel Raphael and Tobit, 161 × 124; the only book in which it occurs.

Not in Bible Soc. Catal., but see III. p. 804. Pettigrew II. p. 194 (this copy, Duke of Sussex).

A remarkable and uncommon specimen of binding, possibly French.

1244 TRICASSO da Cerasari (Patritio). Epitoma chyromantico, nel quale si contiene tutte l'opere per esso Tricasso in questa scientia composte. Venice, Agostino Bindoni, 1538

Sm. 4to., numerous cuts, whole bound leather, gold tooled, edges quite uncut, (E 3 slightly defective and mended, colophon soiled, but otherwise a splendid copy).

Rare edition (see also No. 1213). With 78 full-page woodcuts of Hands and their markings: two early cuts at beginning, one signed •I• •C• (see also No. 1170): device of a bull at end. It is curious that the author's preface is dated "Di Cerasari alli 13. Marzo 1635" which must be a misprint for 1535.

1245 VELMATIUS (Jo. Maria). (Christeidos; in concionatorem Scottizantem tantum & Thomatizantem; Actus Apostolorum).

Venice, [F. Bindoni & M. Pasini], 1538

4to., original boards covered with vellum leaves from a 15th cent. MS. (sewing loose and a trifling stain, but a splendid clean and uncut copy with some leaves unopened, and last blank). £5 10s.

Dominicus de Cuppis (created 1517), and several other fine half-page woodcuts of scenes from Bible history, two being in the style of Zoan Andrea; many ornamental initials.

The wood engravings executed for this work are among the finest specimens of the period for delicacy of execution, &c. The border, it may be noted, was coarsely copied at Milan for Pac. Pontio, 1569 (q.v.)

1246 HUGO de S. Caro. Speculum ecclesiae, una cum Speculo sacerdotum, &c. Venice, [F. Bindoni & M. Pasini], 1538

The title-leaf in this copy is from the Oct. 1526 ed. by the same printers with the copy of the Holbein border (see No. 1232). Commences with a full history of the Fraternity of the Rosary founded by St. Dominic and revived in the 15th cent. at Cöln. Following the text of the devotional part are admonitions to those entering the society, expositions of the Ave Maria, &c., and an account of miracles, &c. At end is the siren device as in No. 1306, this press evidently being a continuation of Ravano's.

1310 CASTELLO (A. da). Rosario della gloriosa vergine Maria. Venice, Giov. Varisco & comp., 1561 8vo., numerous wdcts., &c., as No. 1309, old parchment, (some stains, but tall copy, mainly uncut). £3 5s.

(Essl. p. 470)—the present one is similar though not identical and is much superior. Some smaller cuts. Small device of a siren in a square.

1312 CASTELLO (A. da). Rosario della gloriosa vergine Maria. Venice, Giov. Varisco & comp., 1569 8vo., numerous wdcts., &c., as Nos. 1309-10, orig. vellum. £3.

Siren device within cartouche. The history of Prince Eugène's library as given by Guigard I. 84 is interesting. His books were bequeathed to the emp. Charles VI and thus formed part of the Impl. Library at Wien. Later, a sort of revision was made and duplicates sold without regard to sentiment, to their merit or to their splendid bindings. As to the remainder they were stripped of their orig. bindings and recovered in grey boards!

Woodcut title-page signed L·A· and the last page "Multiplifica p' modo de Quadrato" (a woodcut) is signed in full by the artist: "opus lucha ãtonio de uberti fe i uinetia." This is important as giving a clue to the designer of the numerous cuts with the signature L & LA found in different books. See Kristeller, Florentine Wdcts., p. xl, who supposes this ed. to be the first with date.

On each title is the Aldine anchor, the same block as used by P. Manutius in 1554 (Nos. 1141-2). There is no need to insist on the rarity of specimens of Dudley bindings in their genuine original state, as is the above. The largest ornament on this binding is the same as used on those bindings executed for Mark Lauwrin of Watervliet (cf. plate 40 of Burlington Exhib. Catal.) It is therefore very probable that this volume was bound for this famous connoisseur, the patron of Hubert Goltz and the rival of Grolier and Maioli.

The 35 cuts in text are engraved by the hand of Marcolini after the designs of Salviati. On I 4 vo. is the fine portrait as in No. 1373: representing Marcolini, engr. by himself. The smaller one, on Q 4, is that of Pietro Aretino after Titian.

First edition of these "dialogues familiers où sont répandus une foule de traits spirituels, de notices curieuses, et d'historiettes plaisantes." A large portrait of Doni is on A 4 vo. in both Parts 1 & 3: one of Gelli (?) on BB 3 (Pt. 4) and a very fine one of Marcolini (the publisher) on next leaf. The small head of Petrarch is on Nn 1 (Pt. 2) and a large cut of him with Dante and Boccaccio on Nn 4 vo.

The other cuts are said to be after the designs of Marcolini: several are in style similar to those in his Dante (No. 1367), but others may be by other hands: some of them, in the Diogenes Laertius are attributed to Salviati.

1377 GRISONE (Federico). Ordini di Cavalcare et modi di conoscere le nature de' Cavalli emendare i vitii loro, et ammaestrargli per l'uso della guerra & commodita degli huomini.

Venice, V. Valgrisi, 1551

8vo., orig. English calf, the sides covered with an interlacing pattern of strapwork and arabesques in gold outline partly filled in with white, green, blue and black paint, the centre occupied by an escutcheon ornament as used by Berthelet: edges gilt and tooled with a vine pattern: enclosed in case. £75.

A very remarkable and ornate specimen of 16th century English binding in first-class condition. Apparently the first Venice edition, hitherto unknown. The earliest mentioned by Brunet, and Huth's Bibliography of Works on Horses, &c. is that of 1552, by the same printer. Brunet remarks that the 1552 ed. was the earliest known: but it seems that the book was originally published at Naples 1550. The author (whose name is spelt Grisoni only on the title, and elsewhere Grisone) dedicates his work to Ippolito d'Este, cardinal, &c. (1509-72).

It seems very probable, for several reasons, that the above volume was bound by Thomas Berthelet for the Earl of Leicester. So far as is known Berthelet was the only binder then working in this style in England: he seems to have worked largely for Leicester, as many of the bindings with the latter's badge, &c. have Berthelet's characteristics in style, leather and tooling. Then again Leicester no doubt had a collection of works on Hippology, as he was made Master of the Horse, 11 Jan. 1558-9, and is addressed as such by Blundeville in 1565, referring also to the earl's famous "Rider" Claudio Corte, who was likewise a writer on Horses. See the description (No. 1388 pres. catal.) of a copy of the first ed. of Corte's work, evidently bound for Leicester. It seems very evident that books in the Italian language formed a considerable part of the Earl's library, which was a large and fine one, but little is known of it. The library was dispersed after the death of the noble owner.

It may be noted that Blundeville translated Grisone's work into English, which was printed by W. Seres, c. 1580.

1378 ARIOSTO (Lodov.) Orlando Furioso, con le annot., &c. di Gir. Ruscelli, Vita dell' autore da G. B. Pigna, tavola da G. B. Rota, &c.

The inscription lettered on side indicates that this volume was apparently a presentation from Henry III of Navarre (Henry IV of France) in 1571 to Gabriel Pot (? Du Poet, ? minister, and translator of Erasmus, Brunet II. 1040).

1382 OLIVIERO (A. F.) La Alamanna (col Carlo V in Olma, e l'origine d'amore, e canzone deplorando le miserie d'Italia per le guerre, 1557). Venice, V. Valgrisi, 1567

8vo., several fine and curious wdcts. of Alchemical symbolism, orig. French (?) calf gilt, (last 2 ll. probably blank, missing). £2 10s.

According to Renouard (Aldc, I. p. 327-8) this edition is identical with that from the Aldine press (P. Manutius) 1546, only some of the prelim. ll. being reprinted (in exactly similar type) with the addition of the mark of Zileti. Copies are seldom found in good condition, but the above copy is an excellent one, only a slight stain being on last two leaves.

1388 CORTE (Claudio) di Pavia. Il Cavallarizzo, nel qual si tratta della Natura de' Cavalli, del modo di domarli & frenarli, (etc.)

Venice, G. Zilletti, 1562

Sm. 4to., original English binding of brown morocco, Venetian style (probably by Berthelet's successor), with broad gilt borders of rich arabesque tooling, centre panels of ornament with phœnixes, and motto "QUO FATA TRAHUNT, RETRAHUNT QUE SE QUAMUR," within interlacing squares, gilt gauffred edges: a beautiful specimen, in first-rate condition, enclosed in case, with last blank leaf. £85.

Apparently the first edition and rare: the earliest mentioned by Huth in his bibliography is that of Marseilles, 1573.

A very interesting copy, undoubtedly having been first bound for Robert Dudley Earl of Leicester. The title bears the signature of "WM. PYKERYNGE, 1565," and below, the inscription in the same hand: "Il dono del illustrissimo. Sigor. Conte de Lecestre"; below which is the signature "WILLIAM CAVENDYSSHE," (with neat corrections in his hand). On the opposite fly-leaf is the following inscription: "Al molto valoroso e cortesissimo Cavaliero il Sigor. CAROLO CAVENDISCHIO peritissimo nell' arte di Cavalcare, THOMASO BLONDEVILLO manda questo libro vi^o. Januarii 1583."

By means of these inscriptions, the history of the volume may be read as follows. Three years after publication and one year after he was created Earl, namely in 1565, Leicester gave the volume to Sir William Pickering (1516-75) the courtier, ambassador, &c., who from 1559 till his death in Jan. 1574-5 was living in England: "was seriously thought of as a suitor for Elizabeth's hand": was appointed one of the lieutenants of London 1569. "He requested that his library should not be dispersed, but go to whoever married his illegitimate daughter Hester." She married Sir Edward Wotton (1548-1626) [in Sept. 1575, according to one account] who was the son of Thomas Wotton (1521-87) [the famous bibliophile, known as the English Grolier on account of the fine bindings done for him] and half-brother to Sir Henry Wotton (1568-1639). Supposing the book to have thus descended to Sir Edward, its history is thus brought into touch with Sir Henry who, on his diplomatic travels, was accompanied c. 1610-12 by William Cavendish and his brother Charles. How the book came into the possession of Thomas Blundeville, the famous writer on Horsemanship, &c. (fl. 1561-1602) does not appear, but one may provide the missing link by supposing that it was given him by one of the Wottons. As a teacher of horsemanship and general accomplishments to "young gentlemen" his presentation of the book to Sir Charles Cavendish, no doubt also one of his patrons, was, at least, appropriate. Sir Charles was the third and youngest son of Sir William Cavendish (1505?-57), statesman [brother of George the author of the "Life of Wolsey] and of his third wife Elizabeth ("Bess of Hardwick"). Charles was born 28 Nov. 1554, knighted 1582 (the year before the above book was presented to him) and died 1617. Collins (Families of Cavendish, &c. 1752, p. 20-21) remarks that he is not found as returned to Parliament in the reign of James I "and, it is probable, being an indulgent father he was altogether intent on the affairs of his family, and the education of his sons, making them masters of whatever their genius led them to, particularly in the Art of Horsemanship and Weapons, wherein he was reputed to be the greatest master of the age."

The last signature to be mentioned is undoubtedly that of the William Cavendish (1592-1672) who was the son of Sir Charles (1554-1617) just mentioned. William's brother was the Sir Charles (1591-1654) referred to above as accompanying Sir Henry Wotton abroad, and well known as a mathematician. There is no doubt that the present book was given to William by his father some time between 1583 and 1617 or bequeathed on his death in the latter year. William was knighted in 1610: created earl of Newcastle 1628: famous for his magnificent entertainments to the king: appointed governor of the Prince of Wales (Charles II) and "succeeded in making his pupil an accomplished horseman." In 1657 he published the first of his two great works on horses "La Methode et Invention Nouvelle de dresser les Chevaux": the second work was published 1667. He was also author of numerous plays and poems. Ben Jonson wrote "besides the two masques .. for his entertainments, elegies to celebrate the duke's riding and fencing," &c.

Curiously there is also a connecting link between Blundeville, the earl of Leicester and the author of this book, viz., in the former's "Fower Chiefyst Offices belongyng to Horsemanshippe" (1565-6), the dedication of which is to Leicester (as were several of B.'s works), in which one learns that other matters not contained therein "shall be taught hereafter in another little Booke of Additions, which I intend God willing, to ioine to this volume, briefly comprehending all the precepts of a later writer, now being your Honors most excellent Rider, called maister Claudio Corte .. which Booke shall supply to all the wants of such necessarie things, as either Grison in his Booke, or I perhaps have negligently omitted. And truely, your Honour deserueth no little praise for procuring so singular a man into this realme: for besides his perfection in Riding, he is so well learned, wise, courteous, and modest withall, as his acquaintance, companie, and friendshippe ought to be right deare unto al ciuil Gentlemen, and specially to those that delight in horsmanship." Corte's book was translated by T. Bedingfield and printed by H. Denham, 1584. Grison's book was translated by Blundeville and printed by W. Seres [1580]: see a copy of the original edition which may also have been bound for Leicester (No. 1377).

Very remarkable title-page in colours, having border (figures of the author, &c.) in black on a yellow ground and the lettering in yellow, green and red. Double-page view of Venice. On p. 10 the curious title is explained as being derived from Hebrew roots.

Brunet IV. 349 gives J. Tacuinus as the printer of this ed. or another of the same date and appearance (from the Libri Catal.) Apparently not in Essling, but another work of the same author (1518) is cited under No. 1981, by Tacuinus: it has the border used in No. 1171 present catalogue.

Several of the intermediate editions, though containing a number of the original cuts, have not so many as the present edition. The artists' signatures are b, F, and Fb (see Apoc. XII). Large historiated initials. ? Possibly printed by Bindoni or successor.

CÖLN 1466.

1422 (166a) PETRARCA (Franc.) Epistola ad Joh. [Boccaccio] Florentinum poetam. De historia Griseldis mulieris maxime constantiae et patientiae. [s.n., Cöln, U. Zell, c. 1472]

Sm. 4to., straight grain blue morocco, richly gilt, fine large copy with some edges uncut, 219 × 145 (Br. Mus. 201 × 140). £28.

There was an exactly similar edition issued from the same press at the same time (Poll. p. 186): these are the earliest editions of the story of Patient Griselda, the most popular of the stories in the "Decameron," here translated by Petrarch into Latin. Chaucer used it in his Clerke's Tale, having, it is said, derived the story personally from Petrarch when the English poet was in Italy.

1425 (192a) THOMAS Aquinas. Super quarto libro Sententiarum. Cöln, H. Quentell, 2 Feb. 1480

Large stout fol., orig. wooden boards, leather stripped off, but sewing &c. sound, and an interesting specimen: lined with vellum leaves from a 15th cent. MS. treatise on the Theory and Practice of Music, with notation. £10 10s.

Third edition (2nd in Germany, 1st at Cöln). H.-C. *1483. Pell. 1070. Pr. 1241. Poll. p. 262. Schr. 5342. Quentell's 1st press and the 5th book therefrom. Two sides of the woodcut border on the 1st printed leaf are cut off, but this is the only defect, the book being in fine condition, mainly uncut, with the blank first and last leaves: has been a chained book.

Large stout fol., 2 parts in 1 vol., 17th cent. red morocco, richly gilt borders and back, g.e.: (wants last leaf of Table, slight stains, but fine large copy). £5 10s.

First ed.: 7th book by Sorg. With wdct. initials. H. 14827 (not seen). Reichling I. p. 193 (? differs). Pr. 1646. Poll. p. 343. This copy contains 390 leaves, not having the blank fol. 11 and the blank last leaf: but otherwise corresponds in the quiring with Pollard's collation (394 leaves) except in the matter of quire R which is said to be in 8, but is here in 6 and yet seems to be perfect. It is remarkable that other collations seem hopelessly wrong, "293 ff., 294 ff." &c.

Augsburg, Joh. Froschauer, 23 Dec. 1496

Sm. 4to., fine large copy, new vellum, dull g.e. £4 4s.

Each section occurs in the order of the Calendar, with abbreviated headings which, if read continuously throughout give the mnemonic verses called "Cisiojanus" similar to those found in the Horae, &c. Here every syllable represents a Saint's day: we give January as a specimen:

A very rare German history of the scandalous affair in which 4 Dominican monks of Berne in 1507 conspired to impress the stigmata on the body of a novice, apparently with the idea of discrediting their Franciscan rivals. Their punishment was burning alive. See also No. 116, apparently the official account in Latin.

WESEL 1543.

1443 (550e) BALE (John). Illustrium Maioris Britanniae scriptorum summarium.
 Wesel, Theod. Plateanus,

[Dirik van der Straten] (31 July) 1548

Sm. 4to., wdcts. and ornamental initials, old calf, title backed, slight wormhole in some leaves, but large copy with the "Additio." £5 5s.

First ed. Has always been considered as one of the first books printed at Ipswich, as the colophon on fol. 248 runs: "Excusumque fuit Gippeswici in Anglia per Ioannem Overton," &c., but this person is probably fictitious. The date 1548 occurs twice, and the extra I added at foot of title (making 1549) seems to be an error. Most copies are said to be without this latter date and the true imprint (on title). Copies recently priced £7 7s. and £7 10s. A notice of Caxton occurs on fol. 208.

URSEL 1558.

First ed. and probably the first book printed at Ober-Ursel near Homburg, not to be confused with Ober-Wesel, on the Rhine, south of Coblenz. The author was probably pastor of the church at Homburg, (not Hamburg).

EMMERICH 1573.

1445 (550g) BACHERIUS (Petr.) Spongia Ebriosorum, parænesis seria ad eos, qui liberalioribus sunt addicti poculis, Bacchoque sæpiuscule litare gaudent, duobus dialogis compræhensa . .

Sm. 8vo., calf gilt. £3. Emmerich, Reyner Wylich, 1592

A curious work against the heavy drinking at the period, by P. Bagier or Bachier of Gand. The book is the 2nd work known to have been printed at Emmerich: see Deschamps 455. The printer, a native of Deventer, was probably a kinsman of Theodore Wylicks of Santen, as the woodcut in present book in the same block as used by the latter in 1585 (see No. 1446).

REES 1584.

1446 (550h) AESOPUS. Dat wonderlicke Leven Esopi, met syn ghenuechlijcke Fabulen, &c. [transl. by Buonraeth van Rees].

Sm. 8vo., with 71 woodcuts, fine copy in half mor. gilt, g.e. in rough.
 £8.

ROMA 1467.

1447 (606a) PICUS Mirandulae (Jo. Fr.) Physici libri duo: De appetitu primae materiae; De elementis et rhetorici quoque duo; De imitatione, &c.

[s.n., Rome, S. Guillereti or Jac. Mazochius, c. 1513]

Sm. 4to., boards, fine copy, with some uncut edges. £2 2s.

The beautiful title-border is the same as used in the Viperanus by S. Guillereti and Erc. Nani in 1514-15 (but here probably earlier) and also by Jac. Mazochius in 1521 (see No. 615). Must be an early ed.; the first tract is dated at end, Rome, prid. kal. Jan. 1513. It might be noted that the author engaged the Ferrarese printer Joannes Mazochius (see Nos. 1010, 1296) at Mirandola in 1519-20 to print some of his works.

1448 (618a) LIPPUS (Aur. [Brandolini] called). Christiana Paradoxa.

Rome, F. Minitius Calvus, 1531

Sm. 4to., unbound, fine copy, fore-edges uncut. £4 4s.

Rare: the author was an Augustinian at Florence at the end of the 15th cent. The curious title-border, partly copied from one of A. Fritag's (Rome 1493), is the same as used in Bulla Leonis X (in No. 594) dated 1516, but curiously here is in earlier state in spite of later date.

Fol., straight-grain green mor., g.e., fine clean copy with blanks E6 and xxx6. £4 4s.

First ed.: full-page woodcut device of printer twice, numerous woodcuts and historiated initials, with map of Scandinavia.

This chronicle should be considered as an indispensable accompaniment to the work of the author's brother Olaus, which is an account of the manners and customs of the Northern peoples and was first issued the following year from the same press, using the same map which is a reduction of the important large sheet of 1539, see Nordenskiöld p. 60-1. The present work was edited by Olaus and is dedicated by him to the pope. The type is not improbably the same as used in No. 1457 but with modifications. Duke of Sussex's copy. The Seillère copy sold for £9 9s., Smith's £8 8s., Morris's £7.

Rome, per Duodecimum & Antonium socios

in aedibus S. Brigidae, 22 Aug. 1556

Fol., wdcts., hole in some leaves, but large copy, wrappers. £2.

1460 (623*k*) BIRGITTA (S.) Revelationes: Vita sive legenda cum miraculis divae Chaterinae filiae S. Birgittae.

Rome, per Franc. Mediolanensem de Ferrariis

in aedibus S. Birgittae, 21 Aug. 1557

Fol., 3 parts in 1 vol., straight grain morocco, g.e., some stains, but sound. £5 10s.

Rare ed., the 5th in Latin, but the first printed in Italy. Apparently reprinted from the 1500 ed. of Nürnberg (see No. 361) having copies of those cuts, but now has the addition of the Life of S. Catherine, daughter of S. Birgitta. The type and initials (see also No. 1459) seem to be the same as used in No. 1458, which fact points to the material having belonged to the Brigittine house at Rome as publishers and not to the actual printers. Olaus Magnus was responsible for these three works, Nos. 1458-60. "Magister Magnus Unnonis" is represented in the first ed. of S. Birgitta, printed at Lubeck 1492 for the original Brigittine house at Wadstena.

1461 (623*l*) ZUALLARDO (Gio.) Il devotissimo Viaggio di Gerusalemme fatto et descritto in sei libri . . l'anno 1586.

Rome, Franc. Zanetti & Giac. Ruffinelli, 1587

4to., orig. vellum, fine copy. £2 10s.

Rare. Beckford copy sold for £7 15s., another recently priced £8.

First ed., fine engr. title with arms, portrait of author and 50 beautiful vignette views of Venice, Cyprus, Jaffa, Jerusalem, and various parts of the Holy Land, by Natale Bonifacio.

The view of the Holy Sepulchre Church should be compared with Reuwich's view of the same taken in 1483 and published in Breydenbach's Travels (see Nos. 8, 9, 419, 421). The views clearly show the alterations made in a century's time.

The armorial stamp is reprod. by Fletcher, English Book Collectors, p. 106.

First ed. H. 2538 and 14890 (not seen). Pell. 1898 (Bib. Nat. only). Brun. I. 679. Dibdin, Spencer, VI. 1305. Pr. 5107. Reichling I. p. 122. Essling 1316 ("48" maps). A rare and valuable book, both on account of its being an early specimen of Italian poetry and as the earliest Atlas of the Mediterranean. The first printed maps of which it is expressly stated that they are founded on actual measurements, see Nordenskiöld p. 36. The author informs us that he was a Venetian "patrone in nave," so that there is no doubt his descriptions are from first-hand observation, (see fol. 3a). The date of this book should be before 1485, as the elaborate cryptogram at the beginning gives the name of the then reigning Doge (Giovanni Mocenigo), whose period was from 1477 to 1485. In another way the numbers derived from the same words when added or subtracted produce 485 or 1485.

Contains 49 remarkable woodcut maps of the Islands of the Mediterranean, each occupying the whole of a page; some double; coloured by a contemporary. A copy recently priced £50.  First book from this press.

In each vol. is a very fine fine book-plate of the Earl of Aylesford (c. 1770), the design attributed to either Piranesi or the third Earl of Aylesford.

Nos. 1025a, 1328, 1335, 1377, 1388 are notable examples of English bindings, probably by BERTHELET, two of which have the badge of Robert DUDLEY, earl of Leicester, one (No. 1388) with a most interesting history, having passed from Dudley through various hands into the possession of William Cavendish, earl of Newcastle, the famous writer on horsemanship. No. 1468 is the rare Bart. da li SONETTI, Isolario 1485(?) Other items more valuable from a bibliographical point of view may be found by means of the list given at the end of Indexes.

As may be seen there are numerous examples of woodcut illustrations, and a few the more remarkable engravings, by the foremost ARTISTS of the period as Peter Woensam, Graf, Holbein, Wechtelin, Burgkmair, Schäufelein, Springinkle, Aditz, Wolgemut and Pleydenwurff, Reuwich, Traut, Baldung, Beck, Schön, the Mauchs, Clofigl, L. mberg, Brosamer, Zoan Andrea, Florio Vavassore, Lucantonio Uberti, Marcolini, Sant'itter, Hier. de Sanctis, Mocetto, L. da Vinci, Vecellio, G. da Carpi, E. Digby, Foscari, Wodhull, Perrenot de Neuville (No. 1130), Louis Napoleon, Duc d'Aumale, Duke of Marlborough, Duke of Roxburghe, Didot, Kloss, Renouard, Beckford, C. J. Fox, Ferdinand COLUMBUS (No. 680), Prince Eugène of Savoy, Earl of Leicester, Lauwrin (?), R. Proctor, &c.

It must not, however, be thought that all these are only for purchasers with long purses, for a perusal of the Catalogue by collectors of more modest needs will convince them that there is yet to be found "fruit between the leaves," maybe of a smaller size, but just as sweet.
